

6516208355.txt

I am deeply disturbed to learn of attempts by The National Association of Broadcasters to influence the content of satellite radio. I recently began subscribing to satellite radio because I wanted the variety and uncensored content that it offers. I feel that any attempt to censor what satellite radio offers is an infringement on my right as a consumer to receive what I willingly pay for. Government censorship has no place in a free society.